

About the Choir

The choir's Music Director is Anthony Marks who is ably assisted by experienced principal accompanist Wendy Brown and accompanist Kornelia Danek. Wendy is a relative of Ed and Tom Roberts the original founder members of the choir.

Success in Competition

In competition the choir has gained prizes at such prestigious competitions as Llangollen International Eisteddfod, and contests at Blackpool, Nelson, Freckleton, Morecambe, Bourneville and Derby.

In recent years however the choir has concentrated primarily on concert work, undertaking a full programme of fund raising concerts at venues ranging from small chapels to 1500 seat halls.

UK Tours

Biddulph Male Voice Choir is proud of the friendships and partnerships it has established with bands and choirs around the country. This has resulted in many tours and concerts in different parts of the country particularly in Wales and Scotland.

Overseas Tours

In addition the choir has toured Norway, Switzerland, Austria, Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland, the Irish Republic and much of the UK.

Our Centenary

So at the start of 2022 Biddulph Male Voice Choir will celebrate their Centenary with a diary of special concerts and events throughout the year. This website will keep you informed of all the events.
